Subject: Clarification on news item by mergermarket.com

Dear Madam,

With reference to a recent news item on a private wire service of www.mergermarket.com.

The news item stated that the management and promoters of Info Edge are open to a sale of the company.

The Company wishes to clarify there are no plans, interest, or intent to sell the company or even to divest a stake. Also, there are no discussions of this nature underway with any parties. The promoters and management believe that it is in the best interest of shareholders that the company stays independent and they would like to build a world class, world scale business out of India.

We request you to take our clarification on record.

For Info Edge (India) Ltd,

Ambarish Raghuvanshi
Director and CFO
